The third season of ABC's hit series "Scandal" begins April 4 at 9 p.m. The show was nominated for best drama at the 65th Primetime Emmy Awards and last year it was picked up for a second season. According to ABC, fans can expect another incredibly exciting season, "which is filled with scandal, feuds, sex, murder and betrayal, in a way that’s unlike anything the Shonda Rhimes-created drama has ever done before.” "Scandal" stars Kerry Washington, Tony Goldwyn, Guillermo Diaz, Scott Foley and Cynthia Bailey. The show's past season, centered on the U.S. President (Tom Skerritt) and the crisis he faced, was one of the most talked-about on the social media site Twitter. Rhimes has been known to be a social media pioneer, she previously tweeted about dropping out of college and paid her $1.5 million fee in return. Josh Malina was recently nominated for a 2012 Golden Globe, and his most popular TV role was that of the ladies' man Jake Ballard on "Cougar Town." Malina, along with Sally Field, has won multiple awards for his role as U.S. President David Palmer in the series. Fans were shocked when star Jake was killed off in the third season and the network also canceled the spin-off "Mid-Day." There have been rumors that Jake's character may be coming back and will have a huge impact on the upcoming season. This season is also set to follow an African-American character and in-depth focus on Olivia's story as she remains trapped in the White House. The show's second season saw Olivia's team of scandal-exposing bloggers keep the pressure on Fitz in the aftermath of his presidential election loss. The most recent premiere of the show saw Olivia running for office and stealing the show. After the season opener, "Scandal" went onto win the People's Choice Award for best drama. Upcoming seasons are sure to be filled with drama, especially considering the show will be connected to the upcoming elections.The story e79caf774b
