Pixologic.Zbrush.The CIA officer who launched a covert campaign to subvert the US election, including an effort to prod Americans to vote against Donald Trump, has been left in charge of her operation by Mike Pompeo, who has been confirmed as secretary of state. According to a State Department official, Mary Elizabeth McCarthy, who was acting director of the CIA's Office of Transnational Issues, will serve on a senior staff team at the state department. McCarthy's office was involved in the agency's "election intervention" campaign, which included providing damaging information to the media and attempting to lobby Americans to vote against Trump. The former CIA director, John Brennan, led the campaign, which he described as "an effort to raise awareness and, if possible, get out the vote for Hillary Clinton". The official
